CONFIDENTIAL

MEMORANDUM

TO : Mr. John Chandlee
Central Intelligence Agency
Room 1104
Key Building
Washington, D.C. 20505

FROM : Boyd S. Koffman BSK
Special Assistant for Foreign Operations, Acting
Office of Communications

SUBJECT : Seoul Wireroom

The Office of Communications (OC) has no objection to FBIS assuming daily operational supervision of the Seoul Wireroom on or about October 1, 1979, with the following understanding:

A. The Seoul FBIS Office will continue close coordination with the Embassy Communications Programs Officer (CPO), who has overall communications management responsibility for post Wireroom facilities.

B. The Seoul Wireroom will continue to provide State and State-supported unclassified telegraphic support as presently arranged, including essential backup telegraphic services in the event of Communications Programs Unit (CPU) primary circuit outage.

C. OC has no objection to the Post/FBIS proposal regarding changes in the Seoul Wireroom staffing from State to FBIS positions. However, as the proposed position changes require EA/EX Bureau approval, please contact that office directly.
